Bunting Crafting Workshop

Sat 3 Oct

Workshop 1: 11am-12.30pm Workshop 2: 2pm – 3.30pm

Inspired by the use of remnants in George Smart's work and supported by Heritage Lottery Fund.

To celebrate the first Tunbridge Wells Puppetry Festival on 10th October, we are delighted to hold three FREE bunting workshops where you can learn the art of bunting making!

These 1.5 hr workshops are aimed at making meters and meters of bunting to adorn the various venues for the festival across the town whilst also teaching you how to make your own gorgeous bunting out of material or even recycled comic books, at home!

No machine experience necessary, age 11+, places are limited to 6 per workshop so please book your place now by emailing Laura at frecklesandfire@mail.com or calling her on 07970547796.

Smart and Sprange: An Account of the State of That Place

Sat 10 Oct

11am, 2pm & 4pm

A fantastic production based on the collections of Tunbridge Wells Museum & Art Gallery relating to the work of local artists George Smart and Jasper Sprange, this free show is a key part of the Tunbridge Wells Puppetry Festival. Suitable for ages 11 and up, booking is essential for this event as places are limited.

Just How Gorgeous Were the Georgians?

Saturday 17 October

11am and 3pm

Experience the majesty and intricacy of how the Georgians got dressed, with the help of a costumed interpreter.

Learn about Georgian etiquette, fashion and manners, and view some of the treasures from our collection. Booking is encouraged as spaces are limited.

To book on any of our events call: 01892 554 171 or email: museum@tunbridgewells.gov.uk
