

Tunbridge Wells Cultural & Learning Hub

Stakeholder Update – 4th July 2016

Artist consultation at The Sussex Arms

Latest news:

The last month has seen exciting progress being made with the project. The brief for the Lead Architect went live at the end of May and we are currently in the process of procurement. The appointment will be announced in the autumn.

The project team are preparing the procurement process for the Interpretation Designer.

Interviews have been held for the Artist in Residence and two artists have been selected for the role. More information will follow.

Consultation is being held to establish the needs of creative professionals in the Cultural & Learning Hub. The first session was held at the Sussex Arms on Wednesday 22nd June with another session taking place on Saturday 2nd July at the museum. Thank you to all who came along to feedback at the vent and we hope to see you and many others at future consultation.

Website

The Cultural & Learning Hub web page has been redesigned and will be regularly updated with the latest information on the project as well as consultation and volunteering opportunities.

We would be grateful if you could share the link to the website with anyone you think may be interested.

Sign up to the mailing list to receive instant updates:

www.tunbridgewellsmuseum.org/cultural-hub

Thank you for your continued support.

If you have any questions about this newsletter email:

museum@tunbridgewells.gov.uk